

"If ever there was a convincing advocate of the tuba, it's Les. His playing reaches out from the stage, picks you up by the scruff of the neck and says listen to me" Stephanie Hughes (BBC Radio)

"Les Neish showed us at the Windsor and Eton Choral Society Concert that he is not only breathtakingly virtuosic, but a real entertainer too. The orchestra loved working with him and the audience were thrilled and delighted by his encore" Ralph Allwood (Eton and Windsor Choral Society)

".....played with so much courage, conviction and outstanding musicianship by this highly talented virtuoso but above all else highlighted by wonderful communication with his audience. Surely this is what the finest music making is all about and this tuba virtuoso has it in abundance and more" Roy McKay (Slough and Windsor Observer)

"When Leslie plays the tuba, it's not only him having fun. He has the rare ability to draw the listener into sharing his passion for music making"
Ewan Easton (Halle Orchestra)

"Leslie is without doubt one of the finest young musicians of his generation. He has the ability to make some of the most beautiful sounds I have ever heard from a Tuba and is a joy to watch and work with"
Chris Houlding (Musical Director, Slaithwaite Philharmonic. Principal Trombone, Opera North)

"A world class, state of the art tubist and a superb musician"
Roger Bobo (Tuba Legend)
